

NOTICE: This Program is FREE

An offering will be taken

ATLANTA MUSIC FESTIVAL CONCERT: AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSIC WITH DWIGHT ANDREWS

Under Auspices

First
Congregational
Church,
Atlanta and
Meridian
Herald

REV. DR. DWIGHT D. ANDREWS, SENIOR MINISTER

1910 - 2010

100 Years of Bringing Cultures
Together
Through
Music

In The Commons of First Congregational United Church of Christ
125 ELLIS STREET NE, ATLANTA
(404) 659-6255

Sunday Afternoon, Four o'Clock
May 16, 2010

For more information, see www.meridianherald.org or call 404-525-4722.

Renowned musician-minister Dwight Andrews will lead a concert dedicated to intercultural understanding in a tradition begun by his church, First Congregational UCC, 100 years ago in the wake of the Atlanta Race Riots. This program of classical music by African American composers will include performances by:

DR. DWIGHT D. ANDREWS, Artistic Director

THE CLARK ATLANTA UNIVERSITY PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY directed by Chris Joyner

THE CHANCEL CHOIR OF FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH directed by Norma Raybon

THE MERIDIAN CHORALE directed by Steven Darsey

KATHERINE MURRAY, Mezzo Soprano

TIMOTHY MILLER, Tenor

BRENT DAVIS, Baritone

STEPHEN OZCOMERT, Bass-Baritone

TODD SKRABANEK, Pianist

Meridian Herald addresses contemporary society's need for imagination, spiritual depth and the indigenous traditions of the American South.

